

March 14th

Dear Anne.

In the house where we are there are two little girls, Maria & Sophia Dupuy, who are so perfectly good & quiet that it is a pleasure to see them.
It is so warm that all the windows are open, & it is hotter than it ever is at Weymouth or Boston in the summer. We have a very pleasant time, I should like to have you with us if it could be. Make haste to learn to read. Your affectionate Mother
